Reading
And Writing
Skills

WORKBOOK

QUARTER 2

ACADEMIC WRITING

PROFESSIONAL CORRESPONDENCES

Academic Writing

Performance Task 6A: Book Review

Write a book review, using the novel entitled “The Little Prince” by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry. Use the given format below.

1. Book Information
   - Title of the Book
   - Author
   - Year Published
   - Genre (e.g., fiction, non-fiction, novel, biography, etc.)

2. Introduction
   - A short introduction about the book (what it is generally about).
   - Background information about the author (optional).
   - Purpose of your review (why you are writing it).

3. Summary of the Book
   - Briefly retell the main plot or content.
   - Mention the setting, main characters, and main conflict (for fiction).
   - For non-fiction, highlight the key ideas or arguments.

   ⚠️ Keep it short—just enough for the reader to understand the context.

4. Analysis / Evaluation
   - Discuss the strengths and weaknesses of the book.
   - Analyze the writing style, themes, and message.
   - Share what you liked or disliked about the book.
   - Give examples (scenes, quotes, or arguments) to support your points.

5. Personal Reflection
   - How did the book affect you as a reader?
   - Did it change your perspective, values, or knowledge?
   - Would you recommend it to others (classmates, teachers, or general readers)? Why or why not?

6. Conclusion
   - Summarize your overall impression of the book.
   - Restate your recommendation (positive or negative).

Academic Writing

Performance Task 6B: Research Report

Read the given sample student research report, rate it based on the rubrics. Write a two paragraph explanation of your rating and comments on the research paper.

Title & Introduction-10 points (Clarity of topic, background, objectives, significance) Title is clear; introduction fully explains background, objectives, and importance.

Methodology - 10 points (Design, participants, instruments, procedures) Clearly describes research design, participants, instruments, and steps.

Results - 10 points (Presentation of findings) Results are clear, well-organized, with data/tables if needed.

Discussion - 10 points (Interpretation, explanation of findings)Discussion is thoughtful, insightful, and directly connected to results.

Conclusion & Recommendations - 10 points (Strong conclusion that answers research problem; recommendations are practical.)

Organization & Clarity - 10 points (Report is well-organized, easy to read, and uses correct grammar.)

Academic Writing

Performance Task 6C: Project Proposal

This is a group task, your group is one of the school club. Think of one project that can be implemented in your school, the main goal of the project is to help your school and schoolmates. Use the given format. After printing out the paper, the group will present it to the class.

1. Title of the Project
   - A clear, concise, and creative title that reflects the project.
2. Proponents of the Project
   - Names of students or group members proposing the project.
   - Grade and Section.
3. Background / Rationale
   - Brief explanation of why the project is needed.
   - The problem or situation it addresses.
   - Importance or relevance of the project to school/community.
4. Objectives of the Project
   - General Objective (overall goal of the project).
   - Specific Objectives (clear, measurable outcomes).
5. Project Description/Methodology
   - What the project is about (overview).
   - Activities or steps to be done.
   - Resources or materials needed.
6. Project Beneficiaries
   - Who will benefit from the project (students, teachers, community, etc.)
7. Time Frame / Schedule
   - Timeline of activities (can be in table form).
8. Budgetary Requirements
   - Estimated costs of materials, supplies, and other expenses.
   - Possible sources of funds (self-funding, school support, sponsorship).
9. Expected Outcomes / Impact
   - Results or changes expected after completing the project.
   - Benefits to students, school, or community.
10. Conclusion
    - Strong closing statement highlighting the importance and potential success of the project

Academic Writing

Performance Task 6D: Position Paper

Write a five paragraph essay and try to win your readers' by clearly stating your claim and supported by evidences.

Topic: Is artificial intelligence more beneficial than harmful?

Rubrics for Position Paper:

Thesis Statement & Claim (Introduction) 15 pts
Clear, strong thesis statement; position is specific and well-defined.

Arguments & Evidence (Body paragraphs) 20 pts
Provides at least 3 strong arguments with well-chosen evidence (facts, examples, references).

Counterargument & Refutation 20 pts
Clearly addresses counterarguments and refutes them effectively.

Organization & Coherence 20 pts
Five paragraphs are clear, logical, and well-connected with transitions.

Conclusion 15 pts
Strong conclusion that restates position and summarizes key points effectively.

Grammar & Mechanics 10pts
Writing is clear, polished, and free from major errors.

Academic Writing

Rubrics for Book Review:

Book Information & Introduction - 10 pts
Provides complete book details (title, author, year, genre) and engaging introduction.

Summary of Content - 20 pts
Clear, concise, and accurate summary of the book without giving away too much.

Analysis / Evaluation - 20 pts
Insightful analysis of themes, characters, and style with strong examples.

Personal Reflection - 20 pts
Deep personal insight; connects book to real-life, values, or experiences.

Conclusion & Recommendation - 20 pts
Strong conclusion; clear recommendation with justification.

Organization & Mechanics - 10 pts
Well-organized, clear, free of grammar/spelling errors.

Academic Writing

Rubrics for Research Report Analysis: 20 points each

Identification of Report Components (Title, Introduction, Methodology, Results, Conclusion) Correctly identifies all components with accurate explanation.

Depth of Analysis (Strengths, weaknesses, clarity, significance) Provides deep, insightful analysis with clear evidence from the report.

Interpretation & Understanding (Shows comprehension of the report's purpose and findings)Fully understands the report; explains purpose and findings clearly.

Organization & Structure (Logical flow of written analysis)Well-organized; ideas flow logically and are easy to follow.

Clarity & Language Use (Grammar, spelling, style, coherence)Writing is clear, coherent, free from major errors.

Rubrics for Project Proposal Presentation: 3 minutes time limit

Content Mastery (20 pts) (Understanding of project, objectives, rationale, and details) Shows complete understanding; confidently explains all aspects of the proposal.

Organization of Presentation (20 pts) (Flow, sequence, clarity) Very well-structured; ideas flow logically; easy to follow.

Clarity & Communication (20 pts) (Voice, language, explanation) Speaks clearly, confidently, and uses appropriate language.

Visual Aids / Materials (15 pts) (Slides, posters, handouts, etc.) Visuals are clear, creative, and effectively support presentation.

Engagement & Delivery (15 pts) (Confidence, eye contact, teamwork) Very engaging; maintains eye contact; all members actively participate.

Time Management (10 pts) Presentation is within the allotted time and well-paced.